- The lively and well organised setting works with a good understanding of children's individuality, which enables their learning and welfare needs to be met overall
- Staff support children's language development as they ask questions and encourage children to express themselves
- The setting has effective partnerships with parents and key persons promote these through regular contacts both formally and informally. In addition, the setting works with a good understanding of the need to have effective partnerships with others in order to support children's ongoing learning and development.

- Children play in spacious, attractive and well organised accommodation. They are able to access resources that promote their all round development and staff play an effective part in this. Staff facilitate the choices made by children and respond sensitively to their individual needs
- The setting is inclusive as all children are supported as individuals, each with the capacity to build on what they can already do

As times to London are cut to under an hour, hopes raised for spin-offs

Housing gets a rail boost

BANBURY'S housing market could get a welcome boost after rail travel to the capital was brought to under an hour.

Rail operator Chiltern

Railways unveiled its new timetable on Monday, which will cut journeys to London by 19 minutes, previously it was 1hr 10 minutes.

As part of a £250m package of enhancements, including a proposed second rail link between Oxford and London via Bicester, the rail firm has upgrading its main line between London, Bicester, Banbury and Birmingham to allow trains to run at up to 100mph and cut journey times by up to 20 per cent.

Estate agents across the town say it can only be good news. Mark Ashmall, a partner at Davies and Partners, in Horsefair, said: "There are people who travel two hours to London who still say they live in a commuter town. This makes Banbury very commutable and that time travelling to London is nothing for them."

"We have had a couple of investors come in — these people are really on the ball and have done their homework — and say this is now the place to buy."

James Price, sales negotiator at Chancellors, in South Bar Street, said: "People move to Banbury because of its transport links. The links are similar between Birmingham and London and the M40 is on the doorstep."

"I think it's going to boost properties in the town centre — it will do nothing but good for the town."

David King, a partner at King and Woolley, in High Street, said there were signs the property market was improving: "It should encourage people who have been living further south

By Sam
Mcgregor

because the journey is going to be that bit quicker."

Chiltern Railways has just finished the final stage of work on the line, which included almost 55 miles of new track, new signals and points and re-modelling Aynho junction.

Along the route between Banbury and London, 14 stations have been realigned, two had platforms widened, new footbridges have been built and bridges strengthened.

Monday also saw the launch of the rail firm's fast Silver business service between London and Birmingham.

Adrian Shooter, chairman of Chiltern Railways, said: "Chiltern Mainline heralds a revolution in Oxfordshire's railway. Banbury and Bicester now have faster trains to London than the county city of Oxford — to the extent that the people of Kidlington, Witney and Woodstock will now find it quicker to travel to London via Bicester North."

Fast trains from Bicester North to London take just 42 minutes and 45 minutes throughout the day, and from Haddenham & Thame Parkway 41 minutes.

For more information view chilternrailways.co.uk or call 08456 005165.

● The result of a planning

A faster rail link could boost the housing market inquiry into Chiltern's project to create a second Oxford-London rail service, by building a new connecting line in Bicester, is expected in the autumn.

Cherwell dial-a-ride

CHERWELL District Council has asked us to point out it did respond to our questions regarding the future of dial-a-ride services (Banbury Cake, Sept 1)

It has embarked on a project to commission value for money advice meaning the current arrangements of providing grants to organisations for community transport would be replaced by commissioning strategically relevant advice, volunteering and volunteer car driving services.

It said: "Community transport was a discretionary service for the council which has previously resulted in £187,000 per year being awarded to the Banbury Community Transport Association (BCTA) which runs the Cherwell Dial-a-Ride service.

"While Cherwell has placed considerably more funds into this area than other district councils, the latest evidence suggests that the overall cost per journey is now very high.

"The proposal is to contribute towards joint countywide working to investigate the possibility that a cost-effective dial-a-ride service would help to protect Cherwell's most vulnerable residents in the event of a grant withdrawal to BCTA which would result in the closure of Cherwell Dial-a-Ride."

Campaigners aim to appeal

ANTI incinerator campaigners are hoping to launch a High Court challenge after their bid to block the plan was dumped.

Ardley Against the Incinerator (AAI) has applied for leave to appeal a decision made in July to throw out the group's case.

Local people raised thousands of pounds to take Secretary of State Eric Pickles to the Appeal Court over his decision to allow waste firm Viridor to build the 300,000 tonne incinerator.

At the time Deputy Judge

Howell QC ruled Mr Pickles was entitled to grant permission and said there were 'fundamental defects' in the campaigners' case.

But campaigner Dr Ian Groves said: "The grounds for the appeal are that in our opinion, and that of our counsel, Ardley Against Incinerator was not given a fair hearing and that the deputy judge, John Howell QC erred in law when reaching his finding."

At the hearing the group claimed the incinerator was much bigger than needed to meet the county's needs, would be a rural eyesore and its emissions could damage human and animal health.

The group has applied for leave to appeal and are waiting to hear if it has been successful.

AAI said it expected the application will be considered this month.

An Oxfordshire County Council spokesman said: "We are aware that AAI is seeking permission to make a further appeal. We can only await the outcome of this process."

Planning committee will decide today Reject plan says council report

By Oliver Evans

A CONTROVERSIAL bid to turn The Bell Inn pub in Hook Norton into a home should be rejected, a council report says.

A Cherwell District Council planning officer says the loss of the High Street pub "would result in the loss of a village service". It says developer Peter Cape has "not conclusively demonstrated" that the pub is no longer viable.

It has been marketed by owner Punch Taverns since August 2006 and the application says it is trading at a "nominal rent with full discounts" to keep it afloat.

Some four letters opposed the plan along with a 111-signature petition. One letter supported the application.

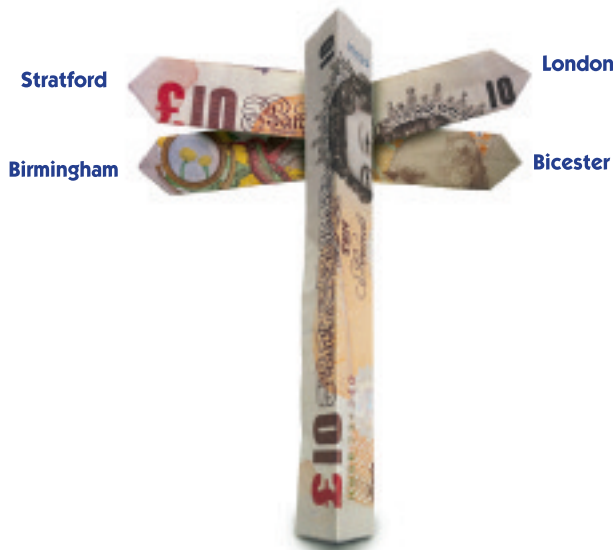

Hook Norton Parish Council did not oppose the plan but the North Oxfordshire Branch of the Campaign for Real Ale said claims about its viability were "unsupported conclusions". They also said it was "self defeating to use the physical condition of the pub as evidence of non-viability".

The council's conservation officer said that while the plan would "enhance the interior and exterior of the building" it would also lead to the loss of a village amenity. This would change the character of the village's conservation area, which demands tighter rules on planning applications.

The council's planning committee will be asked to make a decision on the plan today at 4pm at Bodicote House, Bodicote. The public are welcome to attend.

Attacker e-fit

THIS is the face of a man police would like to speak to after a sex attack in Banbury in June.

A man grabbed the bottom of a 28-year-old woman as she was walking in an alleyway alongside St Leonard's School, in Grimsbury, about 7.30am on Wednesday, June 29.

Police said as the woman tried to walk away, the man pulled her back by her jeans pocket. She pushed him away and ran off. The woman saw the man in Princethorpe Drive before she entered the alleyway and passed a number of people further down the alleyway, as she ran from the man, who may have also seen him.

The man is described as white, in his mid 20s, 5ft 10in to 6ft tall, very skinny with a slim face and has short, light ginger or blond hair. He was wearing a black long-sleeved top with red around the neck.

Anyone with information should call PC Lou Heffernan at Banbury police station on 0845 8 505 505 or anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Adderbury man returns to his Morris dancing roots

Discovering a noble tradition

By Tom Jennings

A MAN has retraced his roots to produce a film about Adderbury's rich heritage of morris dancing. Tim Plester, 40, was brought up in the village but spent his youth running away from the tradition, which his father and uncle helped revive. But, after learning about its history, he has spent the last four years producing a documentary about the dance, his village and his family. Way of the Morris, which Mr Plester self-financed and self-distributed, will appear at the Phoenix Picturehouse in Oxford tomorrow. The film examines morris dancing in Adderbury from its near extinction in the trenches of the First World War to its resurgence in the 1970s. Mr Plester, who now lives in London and works as an actor, said: "It was a real voyage of discovery for me, in terms of thinking about where I came from and what it means to take pride in one's heritage. "But, on a bigger level, it is about being an Englishman and struggling with a sense of identity, which I think we all struggle with." Adderbury has a unique style of morris dancing which is replicated all over the world, from Canada to Singapore. Mr Plester said: "My dad and uncle were both involved in the revival of the Adderbury morris dance tradition in 1975, when I was at nursery school. "It is something I never got involved with and have spent all my life running away from and being embarrassed about. "I ran away so far I came to live in London and reinvented myself as a metrosexual urbanite. "But that changed when I found out about the story of dancing in the village. "There was a team of young dancers who went to the trenches of the First World War and they were wiped out, apart from one guy. "Very literally, morris dancing in Adderbury died out in the hell hole of the Western Front." He added: "It was finding out about that that awoke something inside me and allowed me to fully appreciate what my dad and uncle had done when they revived these dances." Mr Plester explained that his family had revived the dances from details written down for posterity by the village elders during the First World War. He said: "They were able to look at these notes and bring them to life." Mr Plester has taken the film to festivals around the world, including to the South by Southwest festival in Austin, Texas, and the film is about to open in cinemas across the country. Mr Plester said: "The real highlight of this whole process was getting into South by Southwest and having the opportunity to take with me my dad and uncle, who are both in the film. "That was a real thrill for me and that will live in my memory for a long time."

Stills from the film Way of the Morris, featuring Tim Plester and his father. The film premieres at the Phoenix Picture House in Oxford tomorrow night

News in brief

FOUR men punched another man in an "unprovoked and cowardly attack" as he was walking home in Banbury last weekend. The 31-year-old victim was assaulted about 1am last Saturday as he was walking along Wimborne Avenue. The men, all white, attacked the victim by punching him to the back of the head, causing a lump. He also suffered bruising to his body. Det Con Ian Bailey, based with Banbury CID, said: "This was an unprovoked and cowardly attack on a man as he walked home. "I am appealing for anyone who witnessed the incident, or who knows who the offenders are, to come forward." Call police on 0845 8 505 505 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

A 59-YEAR-old former teacher at a Banbury school has been cleared of sexual assaults. A jury at Oxford Crown Court last week found Nicholas Phillips, of Lakeside Walk, Birmingham, not guilty on 28 counts of sexually assaulting a male under 14 between 1982 and 1986.

Cameron attends funeral of a 'loving, generous friend'

David Cameron attends a reception, in Dean, with Christopher Shale to mark the Prime Minister's 10th year as MP for Witney, on Friday June 17, 2011

DAVID Cameron attended a private memorial service for the 'loving and generous' senior Conservative who died at the Glastonbury festival earlier this year.

Christopher Shale, 56, was discovered slumped in a toilet cubicle in the backstage area of the music festival in June.

The Prime Minister paid tribute to the chairman of the West Oxfordshire Conservative Association during a ceremony at the Church of St Mary the Virgin in Adderbury.

He said: "It's rare enough in life, let alone in politics, to say that someone 'never ever let you down'. I can say that about Christopher hand on heart."

He added: "But above all, what I want to say is how proud I am to call such a warm, loving and generous man a really good friend."

Mr Cameron said the death had "devastated" him and his wife Samantha.

An inquest in June heard that a pathologist was unable to determine how Mr Shale died and the case was adjourned to a later date.

Charges relate to two counts of hunting with dogs

Huntsman accused of illegal practice

By Fran Bardsley

A MEMBER of the Chipping Norton-based Heythrop Hunt has been charged with two counts of hunting a fox with dogs.

Julian Barnfield, 47, of Kennel

Lane, Worcester Road, Chipping Norton, is due to appear before magistrates at Banbury on Friday, September 16.

Mr Barnfield is the professional huntsman for the Heythrop Hunt, which hunts in Oxfordshire and Gloucestershire.

The prosecution has been brought by the RSPCA.

Charity spokesman Calie Rydings said: "He is charged with two offences of unlawfully hunting a wild mammal, namely a fox, with dogs, contrary to Section 1 of the Hunting Act 2004 on two occasions in Oxfordshire in February and March 2011.

"As proceedings are ongoing we are unable to make further comment at this time."

One of the hunt masters, Richard Sumner, confirmed Mr Barnfield faced charges but said he could not comment due to the ongoing case.

But he said: "We are most definitely backing him.

"We are hunting within the law so we haven't any worries."

Church is hit for third time in a week

Lead thieves strike again

By Oliver Evans

LEAD thieves have struck a church for the third time in a week, stripping it of all its precious metal.

They visited 14th-century St Mary's in Warkworth, late on Tuesday, August 30 or in the early hours of Wednesday, August 31.

Yet, unlike thefts on Friday and Saturday night, most of the snatched lead was left on the grass.

Churchwarden Bob Langton said: "They finished the job.

"I just find it totally unbelievable, the cheek of it. It was on television and radio, I would have thought after that they would have stayed away.

"I find it incomprehensible. It is a place of worship. These guys have no regard for others, they are only interested in lining their own pockets."

He said he walked around the church at midnight and speculated this had disturbed the thieves, causing them to flee. The lead left would be sold for scrap, he said.

And he said to add insult to injury, the church discovered it was liable for £5,000 insurance and not the £15,000 hoped for.

Ecclesiastical Insurance, which covers the property, caps theft and damage payouts to £5,000 each because of the rising number of UK church lead thefts.

The church is facing a total bill of more than £100,000.

The Rev David Randell, of St Mary's, said he would need Diocese of Oxford permission to use cheaper material and warned: "We can't repair like with like because we can't afford it, then it will be closed and fall into disrepair."

Mr Langton said: "Whether the village is prepared to put their hands in their pockets to help we have yet to find out."

Church treasurer Derek Jones said of the thieves: "These people are despicable."

Following the initial theft over the weekend of August 27 and 28, rain poured into the remote church, damaging the inside that was only recently given a £7,000 makeover, its first in 100 years.

Northamptonshire Police's Sgt Tim Pearson said: "This is a priority investigation. We are aware that similar thefts have taken place in neighbouring counties and we are linking in with other forces to bring these offenders to justice."

Focus on drug abuse, unemployment and truancy

Youth hubs open doors

By Liam Sloan

OXFORDSHIRE County Council's new youth hubs opened their doors last week, as funding came to an end for 13 youth centres around the county.

Seven new early intervention hubs, focused on tackling problems including drug and alcohol abuse, unemployment, and truancy, will now form the core of the service, alongside four satellite centres in Oxford and Kidlington. Thirteen others will now rely on community projects to keep them open.

But no youth work will actually take place at the council-funded centres until Monday, September 12, while staff adapt to the new structure.

City councillor Antonia Bance said not enough information had been given to young people or their families.

She said: "There is still no information about what they are going to provide."

"At no point has the county council given any assurance about what will be provided at a hub, for how many hours, and for how many people."

"It is completely unclear."

"There has been no communication with councillors, young people, or their families."

She added: "It is youth work, alongside the police, that has brought down the crime rate in areas like Rose Hill."

"Yet when people turned up to go to the youth centre on Wednesday evening, it was closed."

The county councillor responsible for the service, Louise Chapman, said 'Big Society' initiatives meant the county could get more youth clubs than before the cuts.

She said: "In Oxfordshire, we may be in a better position than we were before. The new hubs will take a while to be embedded fully, but we will have the early intervention service targeting the most vulnerable young people which will be a major factor for us."

Six of the seven new early intervention hubs – Banbury, Bicester, Didcot, Abingdon, East Oxford and Littlemore – opened last week, with major building work in Witney set to be complete in January.

They will hold open days in October to explain their new role to the public.

All the fun of the fair as county elderly get in the circus spirit

Circus comes to town for pensioners

By Damian Fantato

PENSIONERS rolled up to experience all the fun of the fair as the circus came to town.

Stilt walkers and jugglers turned up to give a little bit of light relief to more than 200 of the county's care home residents, who dressed up specially for the occasion.

The circus-themed event, which was held at The Kings Centre in Osney Mead, was part of The Orders of St John Care Trust's (OSJCT) summer fun day.

Ninety-three-year-old Vera Wynne had come from Orchard Meadows home in Banbury.

She said: "It is a wonderful experience and I am enjoying every minute of it. It is nice to come and do something different. "I didn't put a colossal amount of thought into my costume but we wanted to wear our bows and make us look like we were part of the show."

Jean Ross, 76, from St Edburg's House in Bicester, said: "I have been thinking about my costume for a long while.

"I come to the Summer Fun Day every year."

Ralph Rackley, who came from the Madley Park home in Witney, also enjoyed the entertainment on offer.

He said: "I am having a really nice time."

Some of the highlights of the fun day, which has been running for around seven years, included an appearance by magician and juggler Juggling John and stilt walkers from the Divine Company, which combines circus dance and theatre in their performances.

The entertainment was followed by a fish and chip dinner and the presentation of the annual county gardening awards, given to the most green-fingered residents and staff from across Oxfordshire.

Care leader June Pembroke came with the residents from Stirlings in Wantage.

She said: "They have been looking forward to it. They enjoy dressing up and coming out for the day."

The event was organised by Sharon Wheeler, OSJCT's activities and volunteer manager for Oxfordshire.

She said: "It is a chance for everyone to let their hair down and enjoy themselves.

"They love it. Some of the homes have been preparing for months."

OSJCT is the UK's second largest not-for-profit care home provider and an expectant audience turned up from their 18 homes across the county.

Woman's handbag stolen during cemetery visit

A 60-YEAR-old woman's handbag was stolen when she visited the Southam Road cemetery.

The thief is thought to have first stolen a blue Corsa on Monday at some time between 7am and 1.30pm from a private car park in Beaumont Close.

Witnesses reported seeing the car being driven suspiciously by a black man aged between 20 and 30 in the Southam Road area at about 2pm – the same time a 60-year-old woman was visiting the cemetery. She left her handbag in her own car, returning to find one of the windows smashed and her bag stolen. The Corsa was later found abandoned near the hedgerow and the handbag was dumped in the lay-by outside the cemetery, with cash missing.

Det Con Mark Personius said: "The second offence is particularly awful, as the victim was visiting the cemetery when her vehicle was targeted. I am appealing for any with information about the above incidents, or if they noticed the car or man in the area to contact police."

Anyone with any information should contact DC Personius on 08458 505505 or anonymously on 0800 555111.

Hundreds turn out for flower show

Daphne's delightful dahlias

By Fran Bardsley

HUNDREDS of villagers turned out to display their beautiful flowers – and show off prizewinning pooches.

The Steeple Aston and Middle Aston Horticultural Society Show was held in the village hall in Fir Lane on Bank Holiday Monday.

About 800 people attended the flower show and fun dog show. There were 900 entries to the flower show with 141 prizes to be handed out.

More than 40 dogs were put through their paces in the dog show.

Receiving a host of cups and trophies was Daphne Preston, 52, from Steeple Aston.

Her beautiful dahlias won their category and she also picked up a cup for the most points in the flower show, a cup for the best dahlia exhibit and one for the best exhibit in the flower classes. She also baked a Dundee cake, a chocolate cake and a Victoria sponge, and picked up prizes for all of them. She said: "I was very pleased.

It was a very good day out and I think everybody had a good time."

She added: "With the cakes, my husband was very pleased with the rejects, and kept asking if there were any for him to taste."

Man admits two drug charges

A 24-YEAR-old man has admitted two drugs offences. Ben Taylor, of Oxford Road, Banbury, appeared at Oxford Crown Court last Friday and admitted possessing Class A and Class B drugs with intent to supply. He was found with 41.1g of cocaine and 114.8g of cannabis on March 31.

Taylor was bailed to be sentenced on September 23.

Banbury Slimmer Sheds Over Four-and-a-half Stone To Be Fit And Fab - Not Fat - At Forty

A year before her fortieth birthday, Sonia Coles, who is now 41 years of age, decided she did not want to be frumpy and fat at forty so she joined her local Rosemary Conley Diet and Fitness Club and shed 4st 8lb in just over a year to be fit and fab for her milestone birthday.

Sonia, who used to weigh 15st 12lb and wear a dress size 18-20, now weighs 11st 6lb and is a dress size 12-14. She put on weight following the birth of her two children and, after traumatic child-birth with her second son, Sonia suffered from post-natal depression and was on anti-depressants for eight years. "I would eat for the sake of eating and wasn't interested in looking after number one," says Sonia, who had low self esteem and no confidence. Comfort eating and eating the children's leftovers took their toll on Sonia's weight and fitness levels and she struggled to keep up with her children when she was in the park with them. Feeling breathless when she went on walks with her friend only made her feel more shattered and embarrassed.

When a colleague from the primary school where Sonia works as a teaching assistant, who was losing weight with Rosemary Conley Diet and Fitness Clubs, suggested Sonia should join her, she even went to pick her up from home to make sure she turned up.

Whilst Sonia initially struggled with the exercise in class, in the first week she lost 5½ lb and since then she has never looked back. "The classes are a great social occasion. The instructor, Sharon, is so supportive and very inspirational and she has been there for me through thick and thin," says Sonia, who is now fitter and healthier than ever and has even taken up jogging, "something I never thought I'd do," adds Sonia.

American invader carpets stretch of Ray River has major weed problem

By Sam McGregor

IN a matter of weeks a North American weed has carpeted a stretch of the River Ray.

Low water flows have aided the Azolla's growth and in the past four weeks a 150-metre stretch of the river, in Islip, has been covered in the floating water fern.

Environment Agency conservation officer Pedro Collins said the weed was not harmful to fish and would die off naturally in the next few weeks as the weather cools.

But there are already plans afoot to stop the Azolla in its tracks if it tries to make a return next year.

Mr Collins said: "We have previously had spasmodic growth of it, but it's never been anything as substantial as this before."

"This Azolla is coming to the end of its natural growth and at the end of the season it will die off naturally. It is not having a detrimental effect of the fish population."

"What we will probably do next year, if it does re-grow, is use a weevil to eliminate it. It only eats the Azolla and once it is finished it will die.

"This particular method has been tried and tested."

A weevil is an insect that can only feed and reproduce on Azolla.

The plant has created a carpet effect on the river, and even the ducks have been spotted walking across it.

Mr Collins said: "It does look like terrestrial landscape, like grass, and the problem is sheep or cattle could wander into it thinking it was hard ground."

He said the problem of imported plants, such as Parrots' Feather, Japanese Knotweed and Himalayan Balsam, cost the British economy in the region of £1.7bn a year to deal with the problems they caused.

He said: "It is the financial cost implications that is the most important thing. If people see Azolla or see anything they are concerned about should contact the Environment Agency."

"Azolla is a North American species of weed and was first brought over in 1840s as an ornamental pond species. Over the years people have tipped it into the river and waterways and now it's causing a major problem."

Biodiversity officer with the Environment Agency Pedro Collins at the River Ray

News in brief

OFFICES at 42 South Bar Street, Banbury, should be converted into 13 apartments for people with mental health problems, a council report says.

Cherwell District Council's planning committee will be urged to support the plans. The apartments would be owned and managed by The Response Organisation to provide "transition" accommodation for people with mental health problems.

No objections have been made and the council's planning officer recommends the plan be approved.

The committee will make a decision on the plan today at 4pm at Bodicote House, Bodicote. The public are welcome to attend.

Jane Eyre is a timeless romance

THE Bronte sisters are back in fashion this autumn. November heralds Andrea Arnold's eagerly anticipated adaptation of Wuthering Heights, distinguished by the casting of James Howson as the first black actor to portray Heathcliff on the big screen. In the meantime, director Cary Joji Fukunaga spoils us with his artfully composed version of Charlotte Bronte's timeless romance, the first film version of Jane Eyre (PG 120 mins) since Zeffirelli paired Charlotte Gainsbourg and William Hurt as the lovers across the social divide.

Fukunaga chooses Mia Wasikowska as the much-abused heroine and is rewarded with a deeply moving and emotionally wrought performance.

With a single mournful look into the camera, the fast-rising Australian actress conveys all of the unspoken desires and shattered dreams of a young woman, who has survived as much by her wits as by good fortune.

She is both beautiful yet ghostly pale, flushing with colour when Jane experiences the first pangs of love. Michael Fassbender proves a sexy and brooding Rochester, who falls under Jane's spell but conceals a terrible, dark secret that could poison their relationship forever.

Fukunaga's colour-bleached film opens with Jane (Wasikowska) fleeing Thornfield Hall in tears, where she has been employed as governess for Adele Varens (Settbon Moore), the young ward of Edward Rochester (Fassbender).

Stumbling across the moors, she seeks refuge with clergyman St John Rivers (Jamie Bell) and his sisters Diana (Holliday Grainger) and Mary (Tamzin Merchant) at Moor House. As Jane recuperates, she recalls her turbulent past. She remembers her childhood as a 10-year-old (Amelia Clarkson) with her cruel aunt Mrs Reed (Sally Hawkins).

"She has a heart of spite and she is full of wickedness," Mrs Reed tells Mr Brocklehurst (Simon McBurney), the sadistic headmaster of Lowood charity school, who spirits Jane away to her grim fate. A friendship with sickly girl Helen Burns (Freya Parks) stiffens Jane's resolve and once she comes of age, she finds employment at Thornfield, where housekeeper Mrs Fairfax (Dame Judi Dench) welcomes her warmly.

Fleeting romantic notions with Rochester are extinguished with the arrival of Blanche Ingram (Imogen Poots), who the downstairs staff believe will become the master's wife.

However, something wicked lurks in the upstairs attic. Elegantly adapted for the screen by Moira Buffini, Jane Eyre condenses the source novel into two hours of yearning and regret. Wasikowska and Fassbender lead an exemplary ensemble cast including Dench as a bustling maternal figure and Hawkins as a tight-lipped lady of the manor, who can turn a room icy cold with a single withering glance.

Michael Fassbender as Rochester and Mia Wasikowska as Jane Eyre

Fukunaga's camera sweeps over the foreboding locations, lashing his lead actress with enough wind and rain to match the emotional battering meted out by Mrs Reed and Mr Brocklehurst. Jane is a survivor and we will her on, every faltering step.

Listeners tune in to 24-hour Radio Horton

A HOSPITAL radio station has much to celebrate after attracting thousands of new listeners.

Last November, Radio Horton started broadcasting 24-hours a day over the Internet giving more than just hospital patients a chance to tune in.

And the move has proved a hit with listeners as thousands have logged on.

The station has also launched a string of new initiatives to appeal to a cross section of people in the town, from broadcasting from live events such as the Middleton Music festival, to new shows including Paper Talk, a Saturday morning review of local news for blind and partially sighted people.

Station manager Stewart Green said: "We always felt there was a need for Radio Horton to be broadcast to the wider community but with 20,886 listeners joining us online this just proves that we are delivering a service people can't get anywhere else."

Radio Horton, which started in 1964, has also won an award for the best Facebook page managed by local not-for-profit groups, as part of a Social Media Week run by website Banburyshire Info.

Artistic opportunity

BANBURY Museum and the Mill Arts Centre are offering artists throughout North Oxfordshire the chance to compete for an exhibition.

The winner of Art2: The North Oxfordshire Open will win £250 and an exhibition at the Creative Arts Centre Gallery at Oxford and Cherwell Valley College.

Anyone living within 20 miles of Banbury may enter work in any medium.

Artists wishing to enter may download the entry form from banburymuseum.org or themillartscentre.co.uk, or by phoning 01295 753752.

Rewarding volunteers

PEOPLE in Oxfordshire are being given the chance to reward those who do good in the county.

Nominations are open for the first Oxfordshire Charity and Volunteer Awards, which have been set up by Oxfordshire Community and Voluntary Action (OCVA), to celebrate the contribution of organisations and individuals.

Kate Hill, OCVA strategic partnerships manager, said: "Never before has the voluntary sector been more in the national spotlight, so now is the time to thank the dedicated volunteers and amazing charities that make a difference to so many people's lives in Oxfordshire."

OCVA is the main umbrella body for the Oxfordshire voluntary and community sector providing advice, information and training.

The ceremony takes place at Oxford Town Hall on October 10. Nominations must be received no later than 5pm on Thursday, September 15. Judging will be done by an independent panel and a shortlist will appear on OCVA's website.

To nominate someone download the form from ocva.org.uk/awards2011 or phone 01865 251946.

Banbury spin to win

SPINNERS Jimmy Phillips and Luke Ryan took four wickets apiece to give Banbury a crushing 184-run victory at home to relegation Falkland in Division 1.

Off-spinner Phillips (4-17) and left-arm spinner Ryan (4-25) shot ten-man Falkland out for 96 after Banbury had posted 280-7 after winning the toss and electing to bat. Lloyd Sabin led the way with 88 off 141 balls, which included 14 fours, putting on 96 for the first wicket with Lance Shaw (40), before Craig Haupt weighed in with 43.

Woodwork rescues disappointing home team – twice

Opportunity lost for United

Banbury keeper Andy Kemp makes a save against Hemel Hempstead

Picture: Jon Lewis

BANBURY United missed the chance to go third as they were held to a disappointing goalless draw by Hemel Hempstead at Spencer Stadium on Saturday.

But it could have been worse for Banbury had the woodwork not come to their rescue on two occasions.

Hemel's Scott Fitzgerald was the first to miss out when his shot glanced the outside of a post before bouncing away to safety.

■ Banbury Utd 0 ■ Hemel Hempstead 0

Banbury's Andy Kemp was the busier of the two goalkeepers in the first half. He saved well from Lewis Toomey and twice from Liam Malone.

In the second half, Banbury again had Kemp to thank as he got his fingertips to a shot from Toomey to deflect the ball on to the inside of a post. The home side were relieved to see the rebound run across the face of goal and away to safety.

The final 20 minutes saw Banbury look to get on top. Hemel keeper Nick Bussey did well to clear a Simeon Williams effort from just under the bar, while Will Green flashed a shot just wide.

Banbury Utd: Kemp, Williams, Polk (Kingston 64), Thackeray, Kinch, Hitchcox, Stanbridge (Youngs 77), Coleman, Green, Woodley (Herbert 79), Walker. Subs not used: Travers, Dowling.
Attendance: 316.

Mar 21-Apr 19

Career and work matters must have proved rather stressful you of late and it is now finally beginning to show in other areas of your life, in particular your personal life. Don't let your close ones think that there is something wrong between you and them, but explain the real reasons. If you don't then you are only going to bring more problems into your life. Call me now to hear how talking things through is your key to a guaranteed success.

LIBRA

Sep 23-Oct 22

You will be in absolute heaven, as gossip gators comes your way thanks to the friends that decide to trust in you with all of their juicy bits of gossip. The bad news though is that you are going to feel unable to keep it in but you will have to, as no one else but you know and you will be pin pointed as the obvious source. Money is forecast to be a highlight. You're back in control again. Ring now for a surprise love forecast.

0906 585 4366

TAURUS

Apr 20-May 20

You have become a part of someone's life that's beginning to mean more and more to you. Friends and family can see this, but you're the only one that doesn't seem to be willing to wise up to the fact, which is actually quite funny. For a sign that is usually so intent on rushing into things you are acting decidedly out of character. Ring now to hear why I'm so sure this is the month to lay all and not just some of your cards on the table.

0906 585 4361

SCORPIO

Oct 23-Nov 21

We are all going to be feeling in two minds as to how this month is going to go. Now, just where do we start with a sign such as you? Not only have you improved your life in leaps and bounds over the last few months but you have also helped your loved ones to make them feel more at ease with themselves too. This will all be reflected in the success, which is your life hard and fast from the 16th onwards. Call me now and I'll reveal all.

0906 585 4367

GEMINI

May 21-Jun 20

Different people judge you in so many different ways and its only by listening to what they have to say that you'll discover what their views are Gemini. If you could stop talking for a minute then you would actually find out just how highly those around you really regard you. Pushing talents which you hold can help you make a crossover which you had never dreamed could be an actual possibility. Ring now for clear vision.

0906 585 4362

SAGITTARIUS

Nov 22-Dec 21

You finally start to see what it is that you want and where you should be heading in life. Money can be made in business if you team up with those born under the sign of Scorpio, so seek them out and find out what they have to say, this could be the chance you've been waiting for. Don't chase people you know are not free around the 11th, it isn't fair to others, as I think you know. Call now and I'll tell you your perfect love match.

0906 585 4368

CANCER

Jun 21-Jul 22

You have been experiencing quite a bit of jealousy of late and although it is coming to an end, it is clear to see that you don't have any intentions of bowing out without a showdown. There is a lot of activity in your house of love and many Cancerians will find themselves caught in the middle of a very difficult decision. Decisions and answers all link to dramatic events around the full moon on the 15th. Ring now for a preview.

0906 585 4363

CAPRICORN

Dec 22-Jan 19

An argument still simmering from recent weeks can be put to rest as information a friend brings your way lets them see they were a little judgmental in their first impulses and you could even be in line for some sort of an apology. You are obviously fired so don't arrange things you know will require excess energy but use this month to tie up a work matter which holds the key to your riches. Phone now for a long-term view on your future.

0906 585 4369

LEO

Jul 23-Aug 22

You are about to make a major climb up the career ladder but that does not mean that everyone in your life's doing so well. Be careful how loudly you announce your success, or you could receive criticism instead of praise. Your chance to celebrate will come sooner than you think and as your stars suggest that things are not exactly signed and sealed yet, you would be better to keep a low profile. Call to hear how love and travel go hand in hand.

0906 585 4364

AQUARIUS

Jan 20-Feb 18

The new Moon on the 1st kick starts a new attitude within you. At last that glass is half full and not half empty as was previously the case. A new way to get on with a family member should also make for a much happier home life for you. Just remember to give some space to those around you who have big decisions to make this month or you could end up being blamed when and if things go wrong. Call now for hot news on seduction.

0906 585 4370

VIRGO

Aug 23-Sep 22

Your company is in demand and you should be able to at long last get close to the person that has caused you so many sleepless nights. It is all too easy in life to say that we are causing for Mr or Miss right, but sometimes you just have to go out there and grab them for yourself. This is your chance to do just that, as events mid-month will put the ball well and firmly in your court. Ring now to hear why Leos are vital to your career.

0906 585 4365

PISCES

Feb 19-Mar 20

Love matches could prove hard work as a pretty face just keeps missing on playing games and you may well feel like you are going round in circles. Don't fret though as by the end of this month the planets bring you all the answers you are seeking. An ex wants a favour from you, which is crossing certain boundary lines. Think carefully of whom else it may offend in the process. Call now for an important message from Mars.

MARTIN & CO

the UK's No1 letting agent

FOR EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE FROM AN AWARD WINNING AGENT CONTACT US TODAY

LANDLORDS

We have recently registered many tenants who are ready to move into your property. To avoid your property (and your pockets) being left empty, call us today for a free appraisal.

Why use the UK's No1 letting agency

FACT Martin and Co have successfully found more tenants for their Landlords than any other letting agent during January this year (independent survey).

FACT Martinco.com is the most clicked on letting agent website, gaining your property the widest possible coverage.

FACT Only Martin and Co offer the rent guarantee called Promise Plus, covering your property not your tenant, with no excess periods.

FACT Martin and Co offer truly national coverage and marketing power combined with private local ownership care.

FACT Our experienced and dedicated staff offer honest and extensive advice from our prestigious period fronted high street office.

FACT We professionally reference and vet all our prospective tenants via Homelet, our external referencing company.

FACT For corporate tenants we offer a high level of Landlord security coupled with ease of occupation.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE OF ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders for insertion of advertisements in NEWSQUEST (OXFORDSHIRE & WILTSHIRE) LTD titles are accepted subject to the following conditions:

- By placing the order the Advertiser warrants that the advertisement is legal, decent, honest and truthful complying with the British Codes of Advertising and Sales Promotion, with any relevant codes of practice and with all requirements of current legislation and that it contains nothing that is defamatory or that constitutes an infringement of the proprietary or other rights of any third party.
- The Advertiser agrees to indemnify the Publisher in respect of all costs, damages or other charges falling upon the newspaper as the result of legal actions or threatened legal actions arising from the publication of the advertisement.
- While every endeavour will be made to meet the wishes of the Advertiser, the Publisher does not guarantee the insertion of any particular advertisement either on any specified date or dates or at all.
- All advertisements must be accompanied by the name and address of the Advertiser for record purposes and the Publisher may require evidence to establish the Advertiser's bona fides and to substantiate any claims made in the advertisement.
- (i) In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement or part of an advertisement the Publisher will at the Publisher's election either re-insert the advertisement or part of an advertisement as the case may be or make a reasonable refund or adjustment to the cost. No re-insertion, refund or adjustment will be made where the error, misprint or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement.
- (ii) In no circumstances shall the total liability of the Publisher for any error, misprint or omission exceed (a) the amount of a full refund of any price paid to the Publisher for the advertisement in connection with which liability arose or (b) the cost of a further or corrective advertisement of a type and standard reasonably comparable to that in connection with which liability arose.
- (iii) The Advertiser agrees to check the published advertisement for any errors or omissions and to notify the Publisher thereof by 9.30 the following morning, if correction and republication is required. If no notice is received by 9.30 the following morning, the Advertiser is deemed to have accepted the advertisement in its entirety and will pay the full charge.
- (iv) The Publisher shall not be liable for any loss or damage occasioned by any total or partial failure (however caused) of publication or distribution of any newspaper or edition in which any advertisement is scheduled to appear.
- THE PUBLISHER RESERVES THE RIGHT TO:
  - Cancel the order at any time by giving reasonable notice before the next insertion, but in that event the Advertiser shall not be liable for payment of the difference (if any) between the rates for the series specified in the order and the usual price for the series of insertions which has appeared when the order is stopped;
  - Make any alteration, if necessary or desirable in an advertisement and to require artwork or copy to be amended to meet its approval.
- Queries over classified advertisements which have been cancelled must be accompanied by the stop number given at the time of cancellation.
- The deadline for cancellation is the same deadline as the space booking, after this time no cancellation will be accepted for the following publications: Oxford Mail, Witney Gazette, Bicester Advertiser, Herald Series, Oxford Star, Oxford Times and Banbury Cake.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered, the cost of remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the Publisher has the option of cancelling the unexpired portion of the order.
- Voucher copies or tearsheets will not be supplied unless otherwise agreed.
- The Advertiser's artwork, film and all other property is held at the Advertiser's risk and should be insured by him against loss or damage from whatever cause. The Publisher reserves the right to destroy without notice all artwork, film and other property which has been in his custody for six months from the date of its last appearance unless the Advertiser has given instructions to the contrary and has obtained the Publisher's written acknowledgement that the Publisher has received such instructions.
- (i) Every endeavour will be made to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser as soon as possible after receipt by the Publisher, but the Publisher accepts no liability in respect of any loss or damage alleged to have arisen through delay in forwarding or omitting to forward such replies (howsoever caused). The Advertiser authorises the Publisher to open any letter for examination and to destroy or return to its originator any communication which, in the opinion of the Publisher, should not be delivered to the Advertiser. Readers are advised not to enclose original references or stamped addressed envelopes with their replies.
- (ii) The Publisher reserves the right to disclose the name and address of Advertisers and/or agencies to the police, trading standards officials, or any other relevant authority and, where the Publisher in its sole discretion deems it reasonable, to other third parties.
- SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS:
  - Regular Advertisers holding an account number - all invoices must be paid within 30 days from the date of the invoice. Failure to comply with this request may result in credit facilities being withdrawn and advertising stopped. Any discounts negotiated are subject to payment within our monthly account terms.
  - Other Advertisers - All advertisements to the value of £100 require pre-payment by cheque, postal order, most major credit cards, Switch or cash at any of our Branch Offices.
  - The existence of a query on any individual invoice will not affect the due date of payment for the balance of the account.
- (i) The copyright for all purposes in all artwork, copy and other material which the Publisher or its employees have originated, contributed to or reworked shall vest in the Publisher.
- (ii) The Publisher is hereby authorised to record, reproduce, publish, distribute and broadcast (or to permit the same) all advertisements (including but not limited to text, artwork and photographs) and to include and make them available in any information service, electronic or otherwise.
- The placing of an order by an Advertiser constitutes an assurance that all necessary authority and permission has been secured in respect of the use in the advertisement(s) of pictorial representations of (or purporting to be of) living persons, and of references to the words attributed to living persons.
- Advertisement orders issued by an advertising agency as a principal must be on the agency's official form. When copy instructions not constituting an official order are issued, they shall be clearly marked 'Copy instructions - not an order'.
- Users of the computerised artwork delivery system, via ISDN, must before transmission obtain a unique reference number from the Publisher in order that their artwork can be identified upon receipt. The Publisher will not be responsible for errors occasioned by the subsequent receipt of artwork without any such identification.
- Mail Order and One Day Sale Advertisements. These types of advertisements are accepted at the sole discretion of the Advertisement Manager or his/her deputies. All such advertisements must be pre-paid and copy submitted at least 7 working days before publication. The Publisher reserves the right to refuse to publish any such advertisement containing copy which we find not acceptable and will not be responsible for any costs incurred by the Advertiser or his Agents, either before or after such refusal.
- SEX DISCRIMINATION ACT.

No advertisement which indicates or can reasonably be understood as indicating an intention to discriminate on the grounds of sex (e.g. by inviting invitations from only male or only females) may be accepted unless exempted from the requirements of the Sex Discrimination Act. A statement must be made at the time the advertisement is placed, saying which of the exceptions in the Act is considered to apply.
- RACE RELATIONS ACT.

The Publisher reserves the right not to accept recruitment advertisements which request a photograph or hints of discrimination on racial grounds in support of an application.
- TRADE DESCRIPTIONS ACT

All advertisements will be accepted only on the express condition that the Advertiser warrants that the advertisement does not in any way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968.
- Business Opportunities Advertisements are accepted at the sole discretion of the Advertisement Manager or his/her deputies and will appear in the Classified section under the appropriate heading. Readers are recommended to take professional advice before entering into any obligations.
- Dating Agencies and advertisements for companions are accepted at the sole discretion of the Advertisement Manager or his/her deputies and will appear in the Classified section under the appropriate heading. Readers are requested to consider very carefully and make the fullest enquiries before giving any personal details.
- All orders from Advertising Agencies are governed by the standard conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. The Director's personal guarantee given to the Newspaper Society at the time of recognition is deemed to be part of these conditions of acceptance.
- All gross advertising rates (except Classified Lineage) are subject to a 0.1 per cent Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by Advertisers to help finance the self regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- If an Advertiser in receipt of series or volume discount cancels before fulfilling the terms for the discount, the Publisher reserves the right to make a surcharge up to the full published rates for the type of advertisement.
- The placing of an order for the insertion of an advertisement shall amount to an acceptance of the above conditions and any conditions stipulated on an Advertiser's order form or elsewhere shall be void insofar as they are in conflict with them.
